The Cleveland Europe Express (CEE-WAY) offers twice-monthly sailings between Europe and the Great Lakes. CEE-WAY offers a year-round service, even when the Great Lakes are closed.

Typically with a 15-day transit time, the service between Cleveland, Valleyfield (Montreal) and Antwerp offers a quick transit for various cargo commodities. The Port of Cleveland is the Hub Port of the service.

Other Great Lakes’ ports and onward connections are also available through Spliethoff’s Americas’ logistics network to the US Midwest. Spliethoff’s European logistics network makes through bills of lading possible to and from Russia, Finland, the Baltic States, the UK, Spain, the Continent and any other destination worldwide.
